

METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

NEW YORK CITY

LEROY A. LINCOLN
PRESIDENT

July 31st, 1946

Mr. Henry Hazlitt
New York Times
229 West 43 Street
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Hazlitt:

I have just seen the review of "Economics in One Lesson" in this morning's Times. On Monday I read with the greatest admiration your piece on "The Fetish of Low Interest Rates".

It occurs to me that you may or may not have seen the advertisement which is being run by the Life Insurance Companies under the title "Let's Beat Inflation with Common Sense". This appeared in the Times last Friday but you may not have noticed it and so I enclose a reprint herewith.

Isn't it about time you came down and had luncheon with us some day?

Very truly yours,

Leroy A. Lincoln
President