

THE FOUNDATION FOR ECONOMIC EDUCATION, INC.
IRVINGTON-ON-HUDSON, NEW YORK

HERBERT C. CORNUELLE
Executive Vice President

November 5, 1948

The trend in America is toward the increasing practice of industry-wide bargaining. What is the nature of this trend? What is its impact? Should anything be done about it?

Leo Wolman, eminent student of labor relations, has presented his answers to these and related questions in the attached booklet. His examination of this crucial problem should serve as an invaluable guide to those who want to increase their understanding of industry-wide bargaining and its consequences. The booklet is written from the standpoint of one who deplures special privileges, and who opposes monopoly powers wherever they exist.

Additional copies of this thoroughgoing analysis may be obtained from this Foundation. A postpaid order card is enclosed for your convenience.

Lee