

UNITED STATES INFORMATION AGENCY

WASHINGTON

OFFICE OF
THE DIRECTOR

August 31, 1956

Dear Mr. Hazlitt:

Thank you for your letter of August 22. I am of course most happy to learn that you hope to comment further and at length on the theme of "People's Capitalism" as developed by the Agency. In this regard, I am enclosing additional material as listed below.

From the interesting comments contained in the above-mentioned letter, I am sure that any forthcoming material of your's will be of great value for distribution abroad.

Sincerely,

Abbott Washburn
Deputy Director

Enclosures:

1. Information Paper on the American Economy (Unattributed).
2. PEOPLE'S CAPITALISM--The Background--
How and Why This Project Was Developed.--The Advertising Council, Inc.
3. Speech--Information Campaign on the American
Economy.--By Abbott Washburn, Deputy Director,
USIA.

Mr. Henry Hazlitt,
NEWSWEEK,
Newsweek Building,
Broadway & 42nd Street,
New York 36, New York.