Dear Mr. McGuire:

Thanks for the price quotations on the Library of Congress cards. We will not be able to submit our order for a week or two.

Will there be any delay in obtaining the Linetone Antique Bristol stock after we place an order?

Sincerely,

H. C. Cornuelle
Assistant to the President

Mr. Herbert C. Cornuelle
Foundation for Economic Education
Irvington-on-Hudson, New York

Dear Mr. Cornuelle:

Replying to your letter of August 21, in which you request prices on the Library of Congress catalog card.

These cards, 4-15/16 x 2-15/16, printed one side, using 22½ x 28½--200M Bright White Linetone Antique Bristol (quality of your sample) will cost as follows:

10,000	$ 71.25
15,000	95.75
20,000	120.00
25,000	144.00

You asked me to quote you separately on the punching of the single holes in these cards, like sample. Punching costs will be:

10,000	16.50
15,000	24.75
20,000	33.00
25,000	41.25

We plan to set these cards on the linotype and re-cast the setting for printing four up in gang form, and punching four up for the best economy.

I am returning the sample you sent me herewith.

Very truly yours,

Joseph D McGuire
