Dear Mr. White:

Thanks for your inquiry of December 16. We have on hand at this date 700 paperbacked copies of Planned Chaos, and fully expect to reprint it, probably in the paper edition only, when our supply nears depletion.

I hope we'll be able to hold the $1.00 price, but this will depend on printing costs at the time a new printing is required.

We appreciate your cooperation on this and other FEE releases.

Sincerely yours,

Paul L. Poirot

Dear Dr. Poirot:

Bob and Bea Hessen are away from the Book Service at present, Bob back to the University and Bea taking a much needed and well deserved vacation. During their absence I will be maintaining the Book Service.

In a letter to Bob on April 20, 1964, you advised him that in addition to the one hundred hardbound copies of PLANNED CHAOS on hand you had one thousand paperback copies. Since we are now making up our new listing for the coming year it is urgent that we learn the size of your present inventory on the paperback copies and whether future printings are planned of either cloth or paper editions.

Our requirements for the coming year may exceed three hundred copies. This title is very popular with our readers, and we would like to make certain we will have enough on hand. I would greatly appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible concerning this.

Sincerely,
