

May 26, 1952

Miss Grace Mahon
114 E. 13th St.
New York, N.Y.

Dear Grace:

We have just received the confirming order from California for the 19M copies of Personal Practice of Freedom. We now find that the imprint should read:

Reprinted for
PACIFIC TELEPHONE EMPLOYEES'
Booklet Rack Service

Please make necessary changes on copies not already run (we understand that 10,800 have already been run off). The 19M copies are to be sent (FIRST) to The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, c/o George Reproduction Company, 128 Main Street, San Francisco 5, California via Parcel Post "book rate". Please break into 1M packages (in other words, each package to contain 1M copies and to be so marked on the outside) each package to be marked "Book Rate". Each package is to weigh 70 lbs.

The next 500 booklets off the press (WITHOUT THE SPECIAL INSCRIPTION, OF COURSE) are to be sent to L. M. Berry & Co., Mr. W. A. Steuer, General Manager, Hulman Building, Dayton 2, Ohio, via Parcel Post, Special Delivery.

The remainder - 10,500 copies - to be delivered to FEE...No inscription.

Sincerely,