Dear Miss Mahon:

I am enclosing proof pages that will display the Van Nostrand imprint and information that should be included in the title page and copyright page of the Mussatti book. You will find also a sample of binding cloth and proof of a die to show the Van Nostrand name to be used on the spine of the book.

Should there be some question about any of these items please call me.

Sincerely yours,

Vice President

Dear Mr. Clark:

I have enclosed herewith proof of the cover with backbone indicated. I am also enclosing proof of the title page and the editor's note page with the information you supplied pasted in. On the editor's note page, we can either condense the material on the editor's note or eliminate it entirely as you so desire. I have included a carbon copy of the Table of Contents which you did not see on the page proofs.

On the cover I am not entirely pleased with the setup and arrangement but it was decided here that we should include the Study Guide by Thomas J. Shelly, and this arrangement is in accordance with suggestions made by Mr. Mussatti.

On page two it is my understanding that we are awaiting word from California on an additional note regarding the copyright permission. As you know the Mussatti part of the book was printed and copyrighted previously and I have been informed that they are setting up a "permission line" to be included on the copyright page.

Cordially,

Grace E. Mahon
