Dear Mr. Chaplin:

I am sorry to report that "The Law" has been turned over to another printing firm for production, for reasons outlined in our conversation at lunch the other day.

As indicated, I will try to keep you posted as future publications come along, as we would appreciate, if you are interested, in having prices from the Rumford Press.

I enjoyed the luncheon and conversation immensely. Many thanks also for the paper matches. For some reason, as I look at them, the orange and black stands out, since these were also colors of my former alma mater.

Sincerely yours,

Ivan R. Bierly

Dear Grace:

We are planning to multilith a transmittal slip for THE LAW which will also serve as a bookmark. Enclosed is the design that we had in mind.

We would like to keep this in the usual bookmark size, but if necessary to make a better looking job, we could alter the length or width a little.

Will you please prepare eight or ten reproduction proofs for this.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Alexander
