Dear Grace:

Here are the corrected galleys for THE LAW.
I think they are clear, but if there is any question,
please phone me.

As I have indicated on galley 1, the price line should be changed after 50,000 copies are run for the paper edition. The clothbound edition should carry the price of $1.25.

I am enclosing also a purchase order for the 7,000 clothbound books as per your estimate.

Sincerely yours,

Lorraine Alexander
