Dear Paul:

George and I have discussed what might be done with Liberty a Path to Its Recovery. As I indicated in my last letter, we do not feel that an Institute-sponsored edition would be appropriate. However, we expect at least part of it to be a prime candidate for inclusion in a larger volume of Baldy's writings. The difficulty is that we cannot accurately forecast a date for availability of that volume. We think we have found an editor, but we have no agreement with him yet.

If our editor includes all or part of this book in the volume, then we will certainly make the corrections noted in your letter of October 24, for which I thank you. We shall also draw his attention to the need for updating, if that part is to be included.

Sincerely,

Kenneth S. Templeton, Jr.
