Dear Mr. Poirot:

I would like to recommend to your attention an address by Dr. Charles F. Phillips, President of Bates College, delivered before the Twenty-sixth Annual Boston Conference on Distribution October 19, 1954, under the subject "Do We Still Believe in Competition?"

This address was published in the November 3, 1954 issue, Volume 25, Number 40, of the Bulletin of the National Association of Purchasing Agents.

Very truly yours,
