Foundation for Economic Education

Dear Mr. Cornuelle:

In forwarding the enclosed invoice, I take pleasure in drawing your attention to the fact that contrary to today's trend, we are using our "right of modification in the event of changes in costs of materials" to again credit you with a saving on paper.

With reference to your letter of June 2, 1948, I will see that future quotations include packaging in as close to uniform amounts per bundle as possible. The added cost will not be large.

We appreciate the interest and confidence which you have shown us and trust that our pleasant affiliation may continue unbroken.

Cordially yours,
THE RUMFORD PRESS
