Dear Bill:

Socialism will continue its rampage until it has numerous and effective opponents.

Among the steps to effectiveness none is more justified than putting the burden of proof on those who would subject productive life to the political process.

Here is an advance copy of a statement that not only is exemplary but exciting reading. Won't you please suggest ways you can aid in its distribution?

Dear Bill:

Here is an advance copy of a sparkling piece which I think you will enjoy reading. Written by a housewife -- albeit an unusual housewife -- it employs simple words chock full of sense and impelling emotion. to put in

We are convinced that "Show Me Any Other Country..." deserves a wide audience.

Won't you please suggest ways you can aid in its distribution?
