Dear George:

I am returning herewith the original material you sent me on the promotion piece "The Positive Approach to Personal Rights." We could not find the dummy you prepared.

Enclosed also is rewritten copy, the difference from the original being primarily in the cover.

You may or may not want to use the parentheses at the bottom of the cover page and I leave it to you as to what should come at the top of page 2.

Dean has supplied more subheads, no doubt, than you will want, but he thought this was a good idea so that you could accept what appear suitable and toss out the rest.

If possible, I hope your detail on how this should be done can be back here Thursday morning.

My best!

Cordially,

Leonard E. Read
