

Memo from

HANS SENNHOLZ

2/27/78

Paul,

The Daytona Beach dentists whom I entertained over the weekend, circulated 3 lists: one order sheet for The Freeman, one for Death and Taxes, and one for the forthcoming book "The Age of Inflation". The latter should be available in two weeks. I apologize for the inevitable confusion.

You may receive similar orders from Anahem where I circulated 5000 pieces of information about my publications.
If I were Gary North
I would handle the orders myself (or Mary). But I prefer to "give the business" to FEE. Is that proper?

Regards,
Hans
