

Let's pass a law to make everybody rich

WHENEVER there is the slightest down-turn in prosperity, some people rush to correct it by passing laws. The hue and cry is to "keep up the buying power" by more pay for less work, and higher wages with no corresponding obligation.

That is not going to make jobs and prosperity. Buying power isn't money, it's production—it's creating clothing and houses and cars—it's the things people want. I have more buying power if I produce more of the things you want, to trade for more of what you make.

If dollars made prosperity, we would only have to pass a minimum wage law of $50,000 a year. Think of the buying power! Everyone would be rich and therefore, of course, happy. Especially the smart planners who want to regulate our lives for us.

But with no incentive any more to earn and profit, there would be no production. And with huge quantities of dollars in everyone's hands, the dollars would soon cease to buy anything. So everybody would soon starve to death. Even the planners.
