

November 20, 1950

Mr. John G. Gantz
The William Bradford Press
207 West 25th Street
New York 1, New York

Dear John:

We have just made a decision on publishing "Outlook for Freedom" the job about which Miss Mahon saw you a few days ago.

Your price, as you know, was a good one. However, we did not receive confirmation of specifications on this job from you, so that we would have specific terms to compare with other prices.

As it happens on this particular production, we have a good reason for wanting Miss Mahon to handle the job. Thus, the job has been given to another firm.

Nonetheless, we appreciate your interest.

Sincerely yours,

Ivan R. Bierly

IRB:dg