

September 25, 1956

Dear Grace:

I just returned to Cass the corrected proof of the Study Guide on The Law, with our purchase order for 7,000 copies, 16 pp., self-cover.

I have your note regarding the stock at Guide. As I told you on the phone, the Report is moving along and should be ready in a few days.

As to the Study Guide on Mainspring, we seem to have a substantial quantity still on hand, and Paul feels we will not be wanting a reprint after all. He wanted me to ask you if you could dispose of the paper, and bill us for the difference if necessary.

Best to you,

Sincerely,