

Unconventional!

On occasion we are asked, "How much of FEE's revenue is expended in fund-raising?"

The unconventional manner in which FEE's revenue is supplied makes any conventional answer impossible: We have no salesmen, nor do we solicit. Instead, our attention is on the educational task to which FEE is dedicated. This, if honest and intelligent, develops an interest on the part of others; and it is this interest which constitutes the salesmanship, not our importuning. In short, donors sell themselves on financing FEE! Now, how can any accounting figure cover that?
