

"Robert Bidinotto has done it. He's managed to assemble a group of scholarly, yet immensely readable, articles that completely demolish a half century of half-baked theories about the causes of and society's response to crime. You're going to find out that the average citizen was right all along and the 'experts' deathly wrong."

~ WALTER E. WILLIAMS
John M. Olin Distinguished Professor of Economics
George Mason University

Liberal theories about the causes of crime have virtually destroyed our criminal justice system, and turned our once-great cities into desolate battlefields.

In response, the Foundation for Economic Education is proud to announce a new book—already being hailed by law enforcement experts and crime victims as the definitive modern work on the subject of crime and punishment.

Criminal Justice? is a powerhouse collection of essays by 14 distinguished thinkers. They explode decades of excuse-making about the "root causes" of criminal behavior—and offer tough, no-nonsense reforms for our failing criminal justice system.

"Persuasive...a compelling message."

~ DOMINIC S. AMATO
Circuit Judge
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

"Our society must deal with crime through a criminal justice system that is responsible and effective. Today's system isn't working, because of the 'Excuse-Making Industry' so aptly described in Robert Bidinotto's collection of articles by criminal justice experts."

~ SAMUEL A. LEWIS
Director
Arizona Dept. of Corrections

Edited by Robert James Bidinotto, an award-winning Reader's Digest investigative journalist, Criminal Justice? is the first comprehensive analysis of crime to explore the causes—and consequences—of our legal system's abandonment of individual responsibility as its underlying principle. The result is a radical reassessment of contemporary thinking about justice and crime.

But more than a dissection of what is wrong with our criminal justice system, Criminal Justice? outlines a comprehensive crime-fighting agenda for the coming years.

Criminal Justice? The Legal System Versus Individual Responsibility is essential reading for public officials, law enforcement officers, social scholars, crime victims—and every citizen seeking ways to stop the bloodshed on our streets.

"America's law enforcement officers—and crime victims—owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Bidinotto for documenting in one book how and why our justice system is broken—and how to fix it."

~ JAMES J. FOTIS
Executive Director
Law Enforcement Alliance of America

CRIMINAL JUSTICE? The Legal System vs. Individual Responsibility

CONTENTS

PART I: CRIME: WHO'S RESPONSIBLE?

1. Criminal Responsibility
by Robert James Bidinotto
2. Crime: The Unsolved Problem
by Melvin D. Barger 3. Stalking the Criminal Mind
by David Kelley
4. The Basic Myths About Criminals
by Stanton E. Samenow 5. Crime in the Welfare State
by David Walter

PART II: THE FLIGHT FROM RESPONSIBILITY

1. Subverting Justice
by Robert James Bidinotto
2. Plea Bargaining: An Unnecessary Evil
by Ralph Adam Fine
3. The Paradox of the Exclusionary Rule
by Caleb Nelson
4. The Urge to Confess
by Ralph Adam Fine
5. The Insanity Defense
by Lee Coleman
6. Ten Deadly Myths About Crime and Punishment In the U.S.
by John J. Dilulio and Charles H. Logan

PART III: RESTORING RESPONSIBILITY

1. Crime and Moral Retribution
by Robert James Bidinotto
2. How to Reduce Crime
by Morgan O. Reynolds 3. The Case for More Incarceration by the Office of Policy Development, U.S. Dept. of Justice
4. Truth In Sentencing: Why States Should Make Violent Criminals Do Their Time
by James Wootten
5. How States Can Fight Violent Crime
by Mary Kate Cary 6. Community Supervision That Works
by Edward F. Leddy 7. Restoring Responsibility
by Robert James Bidinotto