Mr. Arthur Ziegler, Jr., Vice-Chairman
Junior Republicans of Pennsylvania
Dell and Dormont Avenues
Pittsburgh 16, Pa.

Dear Mr. Ziegler:

I have a letter from Mr. L. J. Ingram this morning, copy of which was sent to you, saying that it would be all right for you to send out the Mainspring promotion piece and that any of the copies ordered might be charged to his account.

This being the case, I believe you should hold up the sending of the promotion piece until we have supplied you with 300 reply cards. We shall get these off to you within a few days.

Best wishes!

Cordially,

Leonard E. Read

Copy to Mr. L. J. Ingram

Grace -- This man is using the Capital Fiance folders and cards for Mainspring. We have already sent him 300 folders that we had left over but you will have to have a card made up -- just exactly the same as Mr. Ingram's but move the date up to conform with when they will be mailed out. Let Ranney J. know the cost of these 300 cards please.

Ranney -- As information. When Grace gives you costs for cards you can add this to Mr. Ingram's bill for any books that are requested.

300
and send to him
