

Treat Yourself to Rothbard's Monumental Two-Volume Magnum Opus, Advance the Cause of Liberty—and Get a Tax Deduction!

Murray N. Rothbard was not only the most articulate and intransigent champion of liberty in the 20th century, he was also (happily for us) the most prolific. Rothbard's genius and creativity flowed generously and consistently in an outpouring of 28 books, dozens of pamphlets, and thousands of articles—and that is just his published output.

You know him through the RRR. Now you have the chance to read his newly published magnum opus: the monumental History of Economic Thought in two volumes. This work, covering everything from Aristotle to Marx, is the capstone of a brilliant career: a work that no serious student of liberty can afford to be without.

And it is the first to give full and respectful treatment to the role of Christians and Christianity in economic thought. This is just one of the reasons that Rothbard—a Jew who loved Christianity—was hated by academic leftists, but cherished by us.

Edward Elgar, the respected academic publisher, has brought out a beautiful hardbound edition. Unfortunately, the price—$200 per two-volume set plus $6 shipping and handling—is prohibitive in many cases; especially in those cases where it will do the most good, (i.e. students who badly need a corrective to the socialist garbage they are routinely taught in leftist-dominated academia).

It is vitally important that we get this book in the hands of as many students of economics as possible, but the price is admittedly daunting. We have, however, figured out a way around this—a way you can get a look at this brilliant work and also get a tax deduction.

We have initiated a full-scale campaign to get the book in as many libraries as possible; by purchasing the set and then donating it to your local library (or the college or university library of your choice), you can write it off as a charitable contribution.

It is a contribution that will not be forgotten. The books you donate will be affixed with a specially designed nameplate, identifying you as the donor. And you will receive an acknowledgement of your tax-deductible contribution.

Of course, for the more affluent (or dedicated) among us, there is always the option of treating yourself to these great books and making a contribution to your own personal library.

Murray Rothbard's legacy will live as long as the banner of liberty is raised. And now is the time to raise it. Just fill out the coupon below, and send it, along with your check, to: RRR, P.O. Box 4091, Burlingame, CA 94010. All proceeds go to the Murray N. Rothbard Memorial Library Fund at his beloved Ludwig von Mises Institute in Auburn, Alabama.

More Rothbard

Murray Rothbard left an amazing legacy. Now's your chance to sample some of the other works of this great defender of liberty.

- The Case Against the Fed. The best book ever written on the destructive economics of central banking, it is also a great—and extremely readable—history of the Fed. $12.
- The Case for a 100 Percent Gold Dollar. Here is Rothbard's blueprint for a monetary reform that would end inflation and business cycles. $8.
- Freedom, Inequality, Primitivism, and the Division of Labor. This is Rothbard's trenchant analysis of equality as an attack on liberty and property. $7.
- The Future of Austrian Economics. A professionally produced video of Rothbard winding up a "Mises University." You'll be as thrilled as the students were. $27.
- Ludwig von Mises: Scholar, Creator, Hero. Rothbard was taught by the master, and here's his tribute covering Mises's life and contributions to scholarship. Informative and moving. $5.
- Man, Economy, and State. The most important economic treatise since Mises's own. Step by step, Rothbard covers everything, and defends the free market against all comers. $27.
- What Has Government Done to Our Money? One of the best-selling, best-written, and most influential books on money and banking. Rothbard as the real Great Communicator. $8.

All the above prices are postpaid U.S., and the seven-item Rothbard Collection is available for only $84 (a savings of $10). It also makes a great gift, and we'll include a gift card.

YES, I want to make a contribution to the cause of Murray N. Rothbard and liberty by purchasing a copy of his History of Economic Thought for a library ($200 per set plus $6 s&h, total: $206). Please send it to:

Library _____
Street _____
City _____ State & Zip _____

YES, I want to contribute to Murray's cause, but first I want to get a look at his History of Economic Thought myself. Send me the books, and I'll get them to my local library (or keep them in my own library!).

<input type="checkbox"/> The Case Against the Fed. ($12)	<input type="checkbox"/> Man, Economy, and State ($27)
<input type="checkbox"/> 100% Gold Dollar ($8)	<input type="checkbox"/> What Has Government Done to Our Money? ($8)
<input type="checkbox"/> Freedom, Inequality... ($7)	<input type="checkbox"/> The Rothbard Collection ($84) — All the Above
<input type="checkbox"/> The Future of Austrian Economics ($27)	<input type="checkbox"/> The History of Economic Thought ($206)
<input type="checkbox"/> Ludwig von Mises: Scholar, Creator, Hero ($5)

TOTAL = _____
Name _____
Street _____
City _____ State & Zip _____
 My payment is enclosed.
 Please charge my order (Visa, Mastercard, Amex):
Card # _____
Expir. Date (mo.) _____ (yr.) _____ Sig. _____

Phone 1-800-325-7257 to charge to your credit card.

This project is made possible through the generosity of Mr. Burton S. Blumert.