MEMORANDUM

April 1, 1986

To: FEE Trustees

From: Brian Summers

Subject: Newspaper columns

One of the most cost-effective ways to spread the freedom philosophy, expand the FEE mailing list, and attract new supporters is through the use of op-ed columns -- articles sent from FEE to a select group of newspapers around the country. The attached letter and column is the first of our monthly mailings. It was sent to 122 newspapers which have a proven track record of using "free market" columns. In addition, a second mailing of 66 letters and columns has been sent to conservative and libertarian college newspapers. For the cost of postage, and a little time on our part, we can greatly expand our audience.

If you have any questions or comments, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Brian Summers
