

March 19, 1993

Roger Ream
The Fund for American Studies
1526 Eighteenth St., N.W.
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Roger:

While I'll be looking for applicants for your programs, you hopefully will keep your eyes open for potential students of our programs. A copy is enclosed.

With kind regards,

Hans F. Sennholz

enclosure

March 12, 1993

Hans,

The enclosed announcement was sent to a select group of alumni of the Institutes of The Fund for American Studies.

I hope there will be a potential applicant or two among the people I wrote.

Sincerely,

Roger Ream

March 11, 1993

Dear Fund for American Studies Graduate:

I am writing to inform you about several educational opportunities that may be of interest to you. The organizations sponsoring these programs are very interested in recruiting graduates of The Fund for American Studies' Institutes for the programs described below. For more information, please contact the sponsoring organizations as soon as possible, since application deadlines are approaching. Be sure to tell them you heard about the program from us.

1993 Salvatori Fellows Program

Sponsoring Organization - The Heritage Foundation, 214 Massachusetts Ave., NE, Washington, DC 20002 (202) 546-4400.

Purpose - To restore America's founding principles as the framework for meeting the challenges faced by academic institutions.

Eligibility - Faculty members and doctoral candidates in the social sciences and humanities.

Dates - June 20 to 29 and July 11 to 20, 1993.

The Institute for the Study of Economic and Political Freedom

Sponsoring Organization - The University of Colorado, Boulder, P.O. Box 2336 Boulder, CO 80306 (303) 492-5105.

Purpose - To examine the principles of freedom in the context of current world events.

Eligibility - Graduate or undergraduate students.

Dates - June 7 to 25, 1993.

Austrian Economics Seminar

Sponsoring Organization - The Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, New York 10533 (914) 591-7230.

Purpose - To introduce students or teachers of economics to Austrian economic theory.

Eligibility - Students or graduates with formal academic training in economics and strong interest in economic paradigms.

Dates - June 13 to 18, 1993.

I will be in touch with you soon about alumni activities associated with this summer's Institutes at Georgetown University.

Sincerely,

Roger Ream
Executive Vice President