Dear Bob,

I am working on completing my publication records.

In the January 1959 issue of The Freeman you'll find an article "Inflation Ahead".
Would you send me a ^{Xerox} copy?
Thanks!

Hans

Dear Hans:

Thank you again for helping with the Theological Conference. This has been a very enjoyable week, and I believe the impact is strong with this particular group of people. They responded extremely well to the Conference at large and to your presentations specifically.

It is always a pleasure ~~to~~ having you and Mary at FEE. We look forward to seeing you again soon.

With personal regard,

Bruce M. Evans

Dear Mr. Royce:

I am honored by your invitation to attend the Confederate Air Force annual Homecoming AIRSHO. As in previous years, the event undoubtedly will be the high point of all airpower shows in the U.S.

I had planned to attend the meeting and watch the spectacle until I read the writeup of the Heinkel 111 in your Ghost Squadron - Wings of Freedom (p. 47). I was a ME109 pilot and have never flown the Heinkel. But I find it offensive that the plane and implicitly the German pilots who flew it, are described as "deadly against helpless targets, like the city of Guernia where defenses were almost nonexistent." You must admit that the same can be said about the B-17, B-24, B-25, B-26, B-29. My own defenseless father and mother were killed by one of them.

In memory of my comrades who flew and died in the Heinkel 111 I cannot possibly accept your invitation.

Sincerely,

Hans Sennholz

Dear Hans:

Many thanks for your note of November 27 and the George Reisman article from The Orange County Register. It is good to hear from you.

George did an excellent job with this essay. In fact, one of the good things to come out of these California initiatives is that they inspire our writers to get to work -- and some of their output is general enough for The Freeman.

Things are going very well here -- the best since I came to FEE in 1973. Enclosed are some of our recent op-eds and two columns about our new "Crime and Consequences" booklet. We sold over 1,000 booklets in the first month -- before these columns came out.

We hope that all is going well and that you will be keeping us in mind for possible Freeman articles.

Best wishes,

Brian Summers
