The Law

Frédéric Bastiat (1801-1850) was an economist, statesman, and author during a period when France was rapidly turning toward socialism. His analysis of the perversions of The Law in his country in his day well deserve study in our country today.

This Guide for such study was prepared by Thomas J. Shelly, former high school teacher of history and economics.

Copies of The Law (75pp.) and this Study Guide are available from the Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, N. Y.
