

fm

December 21, 1955.

Mr. Gerald D. Reilly,
Reilly, Rhett & Ruckelshaus,
1120 Tower Building,
Washington 5, D. C.

Dear Mr. Reilly:

I have still not returned to my office, but I am catching up belatedly in replying to at least some especially nice and welcome letters that I received during my illness. I want to reply very belatedly to your note of May 18, 1955, with its very kind references to my column referring to your pamphlet.

Sincerely,

(6)

July 2, 1955

Mr. Gerard D. Reilly
Reilly, Rhett & Ruckelshaus
1120 Tower Building
Washington 5, D. C.

Dear Mr. Reilly:

Due to an oversight your letter of May 18 has hitherto remained unanswered. Mr. Hazlitt has been away from the office due to illness, but does expect to return fairly soon. I will be glad to call his attention to your letter at that time.

Sincerely,

Marion Barbera
Secretary to Henry Hazlitt

REILLY, RHETTS & RUCKELSHAUS

1120 TOWER BUILDING

WASHINGTON 5, D. C.

REPUBLIC 7-8611

GERARD D. REILLY
CHARLES EDWARD RHETTS
CHARLES E. HEWES

RUCKELSHAUS, REILLY, RHETTS & O'CONNOR
108 EAST WASHINGTON STREET
INDIANAPOLIS 4, INDIANA
CABLE: RANDR, WASHINGTON

May 18, 1955

Mr. Henry Hazlitt
Business Columnist
NEWSWEEK
New York, New York

Dear Mr. Hazlitt:

At the airport in Boston last week I picked up a copy of Newsweek and found your highly flattering review of my booklet. Needless to say, I was deeply gratified by an appraisal of this sort from so sound and distinguished a commentator on economic developments as yourself. Incidentally, Glenn Campbell of American Enterprise Association called me to say that his office had received quite a few orders as a result of your article.

I hope to have the pleasure of making your acquaintance when business brings you to Washington.

Sincerely yours,

Gerard D. Reilly