Dear Mr. Hazlitt:

I should like to express to you my great appreciation for the splendid articles which you write in the Newsweek. Your articles are the bright spot for me in the magazine. I always look forward to reading them and always agreeing with your thinking on the subject matter.

I am unable to say which article I like the best, but I am particularly impressed with the article in the December 26 issue entitled "Arithmetic of Federal Aid".

Very sincerely,

Josef A. Baird
