Dear Henry Hazlitt...

A friend just brought "Newsweek" of Sept. 5th. Your article on "Beyond Capitalism" was read with gusto; and the fact that your 'eye' failed to note credit due William E Rappard in the USIS Bulletin struck a warm chord. My late husband Herbert Walker was a stickler on this score. In his name I'll pass on his idea on Capitalism, quote: ..." it started when the first dog buried his first bone."

Sincerely,

Janet M Walker.
