Dear Mr. Hazlett:

In some writing I'm doing, it would be interesting and helpful if I could have a short summary from you noting wherein the "SCA" countries have done the things you said they should do, or failed to do so (mostly the latter, I assume) — judged by your testimony before the House Foreign Affairs Committee Jan 27, 1948. This would make a valuable column for you to write in Newsweek. Thanks for considering it.
