Peace

To the Editor
Centreville Press,

FOR AMERICANS WHO BELIEVE IN LIBERTY!

A new book, titled, "ANYTHING THAT'S PEACEFUL" by Leonard Read is now off the press and ready for immediate delivery. This book is obtainable from: THE FOUNDATION ~~OF~~ FOR ECONOMIC EDUCATION, INC., IRVINGTON-ON-HUDSON, NEW YORK. (paperbound $2.50--cloth--$3.50).

Quoting from the first chapter, "'ANYTHING THAT'S PEACEFUL' is meant, let anyone do anything he pleases that's peaceful or creative; let there be no organized restraint against anything but fraud, violence, misrepresentation predation; let anyone deliver the mail or educate or preach his religion or whatever, so long as it's peaceful; limit society's agency of organized force--government--to juridical and policing function, tabulating the do-nots and prescribing the penalties against unpeaceful actions; let the government do this and leave all else to the free, unfettered market."

This presents a volume of ideas for all Americans who are interested in liberty--limited government under the Constitution, private property and free enterprise! It also explains how socialism harms the individual and the economy--along with many other wonderful ideas about good government for people of virtue and talents among men.

Personally, I have read many of Mr. Read's wonderful books, and I'm sure you would find this one most outstanding as a volume of ideas of liberty!

cc. Mr. Read

Dear Leonard - just "sewed a button on an idea" - this is it! The editor of this weekly paper, James Oakley, Sr. & mayor of Centreville has printed all of my letters on freedom. consequently, I believe he'll print this one! I sent a "special letter on "None Dare Call it Treason" & it was printed. Have wanted so much to give FEE a "plug" - this may help me to do so. Later, Oct. B (we leave). I have other daily papers in Texas, Louisiana, etc. that I believe will print this letter. With all good wishes from us & hope sincerely that the summer session went O.K! Ask cage to read your book - sounds splendid.

P.S. This paper is widely spread throughout the country!
