Gentlemen:

Received your newsletter about two new publications, The Law and Cliches; Anything that Peaceful. The Law and Cliches I already have from Mr. Loeffler of Construction Action, but I would like to review Mr. Read's book before we can decide on distribution.

Since we don't know whether or not we'll be in the position of distributing any books at all, if you wish you may bill us at the same time you send the book.

Please send us the paperbound edition ($2.50) and if there is any discount available we would appreciate it.
