Dear Mr. Reagan:

Many of our friends have sent us copies of your recent series of addresses on "Business, Ballots and Bureaus," with a comment along this line: "If he's not already on FEE's mailing list, I would suspect he might like to be added."

The least we can do is to thank you for your sterling efforts in behalf of liberty and offer to send The Freeman and other Foundation releases if you'd care to see them regularly.

We're enclosing as a sample the current Freeman marked especially to Mr. Leonard Read's article "How to Reduce Taxes," along with a preprint from the August issue, which also may be of interest.

The reply card is for your convenience if you'd care to see future releases.

Sincerely yours,

Paul L. Poirot
