Dear Mr. Williams:

Dr. F. A. Harper of The Foundation for Economic Education, Inc., Irvington-on-Hudson, New York, has referred to me your letter regarding the electric stylus used in the prison library.

We have made some inquiries in this Quad-City area and would suggest that if you are still seeking a manufacturer for your stylus, that you should inquire of Mr. Henry T. Parsons, who is a partner of Frizzelle and Parsons Die Sinking Company, 3700 River Drive, Moline, Illinois. Mr. Parsons has indicated to us that he would like to see any material you have describing the stylus and he would also like to have any other information such as drawings and details, and any suggestions as to sales and distribution. It has been suggested to us that a company which sells library supplies would be a logical distributor but perhaps you have already contacted some of these organizations. One of which we happen to know of is the Demco Library Supplies, Box 1070, Madison, Wisconsin. Another is Gaylord Brothers, Inc., 155 Gifford Street, Syracuse, New York.

If you will correspond with Mr. Parsons, you may find that he can be of great assistance to you.

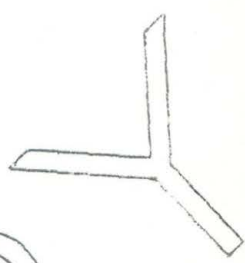

Very truly yours,

E.A.
