Dear Leonard:

At long last I am replying to yours of the 28th to say that I do enjoy your releases, or such of them as I find time to read--for example, "Isaiah's Job"--but I do not have anything now to do regarding our membership in organizations such as yours. This is in the hands of a committee consisting of Messrs. Edmond M. Cook, Lloyd E. Kennedy, and Maurice Block.

I haven't been in your part of the world for some time, but hope to see you next year at least, and that you may repeat your performance on the sixteenth hole.

Very cordially yours,
