Picked up an old copy of Newsweek & read your blistering satire on Sumner Slichter. Excellent!

For basic humanity & economic insight you have few peers. We studied consecrated fraud Slichter in college; he was depressing even then.

I had had some vain hopes that Big Gov't & Big Labor would be curbed under Mr Eisenhower, but this won't happen. Still, you're a voice in the wilderness, and perhaps in time — after our country ~~with~~ perhaps have learned some bitter lessons the hard way — you'll be heard & heeded.

Sincerely -

Ernest Burger
