Dear Miss Lukes:

The Editor of Newsweek has passed along to me your kind letter about my article, "Still More Foreign Aid?", in the January 14 issue. I appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing.

Sincerely,

Henry Hazlitt

Editor of The Newsweek,
152 West 42 Street,
New York 36, N. Y.

Dear Sir:

I wish to compliment, yes, praise Henry Haslitt for his article, "Still More Foreign Aid?", which appeared in the January 14, 1957 issue of the Newsweek. I heartily agree with Mr. Haslitt on every point.

It would be well to have more of such impartial 'treatments' of national and inter-national affairs, so the people on the whole might be better informed about them.

Respectfully yours,

Minnie L. Lukes
