Dear Mr. Hazlitt:

[This is just a note of encouragement to keep up the good work. I want you to know that we all appreciate the strong articles which you have been writing on cutting the budget. It is way overdue, and from a visit I recently had in Washington, it seems to me there is a real chance to get something done, as the mail coming in to Senators and Congressmen seems to indicate the public is at last becoming concerned about the unlimited spending of the federal government, particularly in the non-defense area.

Sincerely yours,

H. Frederick Hagemann, Jr.
